

The fact that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just days before the election is a clear violation of their public trust. Their use of the air waves is licensed by the FCC, representing all the people of America. Whatever happened to the Fairness Doctrine?!

Thank you for looking into this matter.